MEDIA ADVISORY

CAPITAL MURDER SUSPECT ARRESTED

On September 26, 2007, San Antonio Police Officers responded to the 100 blk of Stribling for a person passed out in a vehicle. Upon arrival, officers found Mary Williams, 65, deceased in the back seat of the vehicle. During the course of the investigation, officers were sent to the residence of where the vehicle was registered, 533 Senisa, and found Kathleen Bishop, 85, deceased as well. Homicide detectives discovered that the suspect had recently lived with the victims and was seen arguing with Williams the day before. Over the next several months, homicide detectives were able to develop enough probable cause to secure an arrest warrant.

On January 29, 2008, homicide detectives applied for and were granted a warrant for Capital Murder for the listed suspect. He was arrested today at approximately 10:00 am, near the intersection of Bandera Rd and Woodlawn without incident. He was transported to a local hospital for treatment of a pre-existing condition and will be processed into the Bexar County Adult Detention Center.
